

Bridging Exemption Test Course Information

Bridging Exemption Test Course: Economics

Overview

The test questions are focused on basic economic principles, especially on microeconomics and macroeconomics.

Faculty/Programme Group

- Human Resource Development & Psychology
- Azman Hashim International Business School
- Built Environment
- Education (SPL, SPI)
- Geomatic Science & Engineering (SGP, SGT)

Topics

- Introduction to the economic way of thinking
- Economic systems
- Consumer behavior
- National income accounting

Exam Details

Format

- Part A – Multiple Choice Question(40%)
- Part B – True or False OR Essay Question (10%)

Duration

- 1 hour 30 minutes

References

1. Mankiw, G. (2017). Principles of Economics. 8th Edition. Canada: South Western Cengage Learning.
2. Bade, R and M. Parkin (2008). Foundations of Economics. International Edition. Boston: Pearson Education.
3. Bade, R and M. Parkin (2007). Foundations of Microeconomics. International Edition. Boston: Pearson Education.
4. Tucker, I.B. (2008). Essentials of Economics. Sixth International Student Edition, USA: South Western Cengage
5. Case, K.E. and R. C. Fair (2007). Principles of Economics, Seventh edition, Pearson Education. (or earlier editions)
6. Sloman, J. (2004). Principles of Economics, Pearson Education.