Teaching and Learning for 20202021-2

- Based on new circular from Ministry of Higher Education and UTM, all teaching and learning (TnL) activities should be implemented online until further notice.

- All new and senior students must register and follow all the classes online until further notice, based on new developments of COVID-19.

- For Bridging Programme, the platform that will be used for online learning is Blackboard. I will explain later on how to use the basic function of Blackboard.

Teaching and Learning for 20202021-2

- Classes will be implemented according to Malaysia time.

- Please be aware on the timezone difference if you are not in Malaysia.

- Discuss with your lecturer if you have trouble attending the synchronous online class due to the time difference constraint. The decision is up to the lecturer.

- For now, students who in KL Centre (MJIIT) have to join the section from JB Centre until further notice. Please note the weekdays difference between JB(Sunday-Thursday) and KL(Monday-Friday).

- Class Timetable, sections category will be sent to students via email and student portal by the end of this week. Class will start on 14th March 2021.

FAQ

1. What platform do we use for online learning?

You will use a platform called Blackboard for online learning. Refer to the Blackboard manual that we put on the website on how to use it.

2. When can we login to Blackboard account ?

We will try to create those who did the registration, by 14th March the latest. Student who registered later than 12th March, will need to wait for couple of days for their Blackboard account to be created.

3. Is the class is going to be online until the end of semester ?

We do not have a definite answer for that. It depends on UTM and Ministry of Higher Education's decision from time to time. For now, it will be online. Any changes, we will update you.

FAQ

4. How about student's visa?

Refer to UTMI(UTM International) anything on visa problem. We can only provide you supporting documents such as verification letter, copy of registration form etc. Please email utmidp@utmspace.edu.my if you need the supporting documents.
